

Assessment Currency Report for 2015 Educational Access Television Program Review

Review Year

2014 - 2015

Service Area

Educational Access Television

Service Area Outcomes

Service Area Outcome	Last Outcome Assessment Activity	Status
As a result of the services EATV-Ch 27 & 75 provide, San Francisco Unified and City College community members, and cable subscribers and residents will be able to access classes, college events, educational programs and professional development not offered elsewhere.	Nov 20, 2015	 Assessed in the last year
As a result of viewing cablecast and webcast educational programs through EATV-Ch 27 & 75, San Francisco Unified and City College community members, cable subscribers, and residents will be able to demonstrate improved basic skills and English as a Second Language.	None on record	 Unknown
As a result of EATV-Ch 27 & 75 services, San Francisco Unified and City College community members, and cable subscribers and residents will be able to be better informed about City College of San Francisco instructional programs and services, arts and lectures, and decision making process.	None on record	 Unknown
As a result of EATV's services, City College students and instructors have an outlet for their creative and educational work.	None on record	 Unknown
As a result of involvement in EATV-Ch 27 & 75, student interns will be able to demonstrate improved hands-on professional career skills needed for employment in the entertainment, media and communications industry.	None on record	 Unknown