

CAREER SERVICES

WORKFORCE WEDNESDAYS

Wednesday April 13

Fireside Hall and Zoom
12:30PM - 1:30PM

DIGITAL FILM PRODUCTION

Join CCC's Digital Film Production employers, faculty, student, and alumni to discuss their program and career experiences. Learn about career options and explore if this pathway may allow you to achieve your goals.

Light Lunch will be provided on-site and the discussion will be streamed and available for viewing later.

REGISTER THROUGH HANDSHAKE

CONTRACOSTA.JOINHANDSHAKE.COM

Meet Our Digital Film Production Panelists

Erica Delgado
Counseling Department
Program Assistant

Erica Delgado graduated from CCC in the spring of 2018 and was awarded an Associates in Science Degree – Major in Business Administration along with a Certificate of Achievement in Digital Film Production. She has recently joined the Counseling Department here at CCC as their Program Assistant.

In 2012-2017, Ms. Delgado took part as Executive Producer (along with many other hats of production) for an award-winning film based on a true story called Love, Cecy (streaming now on Prime Video). It acquired the team a spot for a world premiere at the HBO Latino Film Festival in New York in late 2017.

Sakeema Payne
Producer and Editor
Sakeema Payne Productions®

Sakeema Payne is a Producer and Editor from Richmond, California. She is the owner and founder of Sakeema Payne Productions®, a video production company that specializes in creating video content for small businesses, non-profits, musical artists, and social media influencers.

As an alumna of Contra Costa College and San José State University, Ms. Payne currently sits on the advisory board for Contra Costa College's Fine & Media Arts Department. As an advisory board member, Ms. Payne aims to enhance the growth and development of current and future students interested in media and film.