Mack will also ask Tim and Linda to send out information on their items to everyone before the March 14th meeting. Carol will also send out the update on the accreditation self-study before March 14th.
3. Reports - Classified,	Mercy, Terence, Derrasha, Mack

Faculty, Students, Managers
4. Accreditation - Standard IV.A.	Everyone
5. Student Debt Process	Carol said we are hiatus right now with this issue because each college has different needs as far as collecting past student debt and collecting future debt. Mack will take this item to Chancellor's Cabinet next Tuesday and Chancellor's Cabinet will decide which direction to proceed on this issue.
6. Other	Raja said she polled the students on what kind of food they wanted in the cafeteria next fall and the overwhelming request is for "healthy" food. Raja said the current vendor has also raised prices when they said they would not. Mariles gave a brief background on how we contracted with our current vendor. It has been difficult to get truck food vendors to our campus. We will open the bidding process once again for the cafeteria in the fall. Mariles will follow up and meet with our vendor to discuss more healthy food options. Raja distributed a self-discovery test explaining what color we are and what each color represents as part of our characteristics in our personality.

Meeting adjourned at 11:05 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Melody Hanson
Senior Executive Assistant to the President
