I. CALL TO ORDER: 7:00AM
II. APPROVAL OF AGENDA
III. INTRODUCTIONS
IV. ACTION ITEMS

- a) Student feedback from over 300 students was obtained on the Transportation Survey. Chris Johnson will compile the information for next month's meeting.
- b) Zimride & AC Transit Easy Pass Program were discussed for their viability at CCC. There was much discussion on the cost & potential increase in student fees. Discussion was tabled until next meeting when the survey data can be analyzed.
- c) Bruce asked the committee if there was interest in a free bike skills workshop at the school. It was felt that it was a good idea & Bruce will work on organizing it.

V. DISCUSSION ITEMS

- a) Automotive Services is very close to being green certified & only needs one more inspection. Custodial Services is waiting for inspection from the County & Bruce will follow-up with them.
- b) The bike repair kiosk has been installed next to the bike lockers in Lot 9. It now has an air pump for tires also.
- c) Bruce is working with 511 Contra Costa to obtain additional bike racks for the school. We will also have to relocate the one in the Quad once the New Campus Center Project begins.
- d) Arbor Day Celebration will be the week of March 7 – 14th & Nader Sharkes agreed to spear-head the event.

- e) Earth Day Celebration is April 22. Middle College will check to see if they can partner with the school in hosting a table in the quad.
- f) Bike to School Day is in May. Chris Johnson agreed to spear-head this event.
